| DATE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE PREPARED 12 September 1951 REFERENCES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1 REMARKS 25X1 25X1 1. Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Marienwerder (July 1) 1/2 (July 2) 1/ | |
|--|---------------------------------|
| PARLUATION 25X1 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE OF CONTENT June 1951 DATE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE PREPARED 12 September 1951 REFERENCES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1 PREMARKS 25X1 1. Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Marienwerder (5½/D 65) railroad station was occupied by about 1,000 Polish motorized infantry troops. The installation is bordered by ul. Dworcowa, ul. Crodziadzka, and ul. Kosciuszki. 2. Another military installation, adjoining the barracks installation montification about to the west and bordered by ul. Grudziadzka, ul. Koscarowa and ul. Stowlanska, quartered about 600 more motorized infantry troops and a unificad parages for about 70 American-made motor vehicles and several repair shops. Officers billets were on the south sof ul. Kosciuszki, opposite the barracks installation mentioned in parage Grudziadz. 14. Prior to June 1951, about 850 Polish tank troops were quartered in the barracks installations in the northern perimeter of Grudziadz (Q 5½/D 53 on the east bank of the Vistula Rivers Fateriel of the unit included Sov type tan's which were referred to as Stallatice-I and II tanks, and AT gu The reconstruction of the party danaged barracks installations had star | |
| ATE OF CONTENT June 1951 ATE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE PREPARED 12 September 1951 EFFRENCES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1 ZEMARKS 2 EMARKS 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1 ZEMARKS 2 1. Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Marienwerder (Sh/D 65) railroad station was occupied by about 1,000 Folish motorized infantry troops. The installation is bordered by ul. Dworcowa, ill. Cen. Bena, ul. Crodziadzka, and ul. Koszarowa and ul. Stowianska, quartered about 600 more motorized infantry troops and a uni headquartere. It also contained garages for about 70 American—ande motor vehicles and several repair shops. Officers' billets were on the south s of ul. Kosziuszki, opposite the barracks installation mentioned in parag Grudziadz. 4. Prior to June 1951, about 850 Polish tank troops were quartered in the barracks installations on the northern perimeter of Grudziadz (Q 5h/D 53 on the east bank of the Vistula River. Fateriel of the unit included Sev type tan's which were referred to as Staliniac—I and II tanks, and AT cut. The reconstruction of the partly damaged barracks installations had star | |
| ATE OF CONTENT June 1951 ATE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE PREPARED 12 September 1951 DATE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE PREPARED 12 September 1951 REMARKS 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1 25X1 25X1 Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Marienwerder (.5L/D 65) rallroad station was occupied by about 1,000 Folish motorized infantry troops. The installation is bordered by ul. Dworcowa, ill. Cen. Bema, ul. Grodziadzka, and ul. Kosciuszki. Another military installation, adjoining the barracks installation mentiaboye to the west and bordered by ul. Gradziadzka, ul. Koscarowa and ul. Stowianska, quartered about 600 more motorized infantry troops and a unineadquartere, it also contained garages for about 70 American—ande motor vehicles and several repair shops. Officers' billets were on the south sof ul. Kosciuszki, opposite the barracks installation mentioned in paragent of the unit included Sevent type tan's which were referred to as Stalinisc-I and II tanks, and AT gut The reconstruction of the partly damaged barracks installations had star | |
| ARE OF COMMEND 25X1 DATE PREPARED. 12 September 1951 REFERENCES 25X1 25X1 Parienworder. 1. Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Narienworder (51/0 65) railroad station was occupied by about 1,000 Polish motorized infantry troops. The installation is bordered by ul. Dworcowa, th. Cen. Bema, ul. Credziadzka, and ul. Kosciuszki. 2. Another military installation, adjoining the barracks installation menti above to the west and bordered by ul. Grudziadzka, ul. Koszarowa and ul. Stowianska, quartered about 600 more motorized infantry troops and a uni headquartere. It also contained garages for about 70 American-made motor vehicles and several repair shops. Officers' billets were on the south sof ul. Kosziuszki, opposite the barracks installation mentioned in parage Grudziadz. 4. Prior to June 1951, about 850 Polish tank troops were quartered in the barracks installations on the northern perimeter of Grudziadz (Q 51/D 53 on the east bank of the Vistula River. Fateriel of the unit included Sov type tanks which were referred to as Staliniec-I and II tanks, and AT gur The reconstruction of the partly damaged barracks installations had star | |
| ARE OBTAINED REFERENCES 25X1 Pages 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1 1. Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Marienwerder (Sh/D 65) realroad station was occupied by about 1,000 Polish metorized infantry troops. The installation is bordered by ul. Dworcowa, Ul. Censbera, ul. Credziadzka, and ul. Kosciuszki. 2. Another military installation, adjoining the barracks installation mentiabove to the west and bordered by ul. Grudziadzka, ul. Koscarowa and ul. Stowianska, quartered about 600 more motorized infantry troops and a uninheadquartere. It also contained garages for about 70 American-made motor vehicles and several repair shops. Officers' billets were on the south sof ul. Kosciuszki, opposite the barracks installation mentioned in parage Grudziadz. 4. Prior to June 1951, about 850 Polish tank troops were quartered in the barracks installations on the northern perimeter of Grudziadz (Q 5h/D 53 on the east bank of the Vistula River. Faterial of the unit included Sov type tan's which were referred to as Staliniec-I and II tanks, and AT gur The reconstruction of the partly damaged barracks installations had star | |
| PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) 25X1 Parienworder. 1. Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Marienworder (July 65) railroad station was occupied by about 1,000 Polish motorized infantry troops. The installation is bordered by ul. Dworcowa, ül. Cen. Bena, ul. Credziadzka, and ul. Koscluszki. 2. Another military installation, adjoining the barracks installation menti above to the west and bordered by ul. Grudziadzka, ul. Koscarowa and ul. Stowianska, quartered about 600 more motorized infantry troops and a uni headquarters. It also contained garages for about 70 American-made motor vehicles and several repair shops. Officers' billets were on the south s of ul. Kosciuszki, opposite the barracks installation mentioned in parag Grudziadz. 4. Prior to June 1951, about 850 Polish tank troops were quartered in the barracks installations in the northern perimeter of Grudziadz (Q 51/D 53 on the east bank of the Vistula River. Fateriel of the unit included Sev type tanks which were referred to as Staliniec-I and II tanks, and AT gu The reconstruction of the partly damaged barracks installations had star | |
| Parienwerder. 1. Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Marienwerder (51/0 65) railroad station was occupied by about 1,000 Polish motorized infamiry troops. The installation is bordered by ul. Dworcowa, ill. Cen. Bera, ul. Grodziadzka, and ul. Kosciuszki. 2. Another military installation, adjoining the barracks installation mentication above to the west and bordered by ul. Grudziadzka, ul. Koszarowa and ul. Stowianska, quartered about 600 more motorized infamtry troops and a uninheadquarters, it also contained garages for about 70 Accirican-made motor vehicles and several repair shops. Officers' billets were on the south sof ul. Kosciuszki, opposite the barracks installation mentioned in parage Grudziadz. 14. Prior to June 1951, about 850 Polish tank troops were quartered in the barracks installations on the northern perimeter of Grudziadz (9 51/0 53 on the east bank of the Vistula River. Faterical of the unit included for type tan's which were referred to as Stalliniec-I and II tanks, and AT out The reconstruction of the partly damaged barracks installations had star | |
| Z5X1 Marienwerder. 1. Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Marienwerder (.54/D 65) railroad station was occupied by about 1,000 Polish motorized infantry troops. The installation is bordered by ul. Dworcowa, ill. Cen. Bema, ul. Grodziadzka, and ul. Kosciuszki. 2. Another military installation, adjoining the barracks installation menti above to the west and bordered by ul. Grudziadzka, ul. Koscarowa and ul. Stowianska, quartered about 600 more motorized infantry troops and a uni headquarters. It also contained garages for about 70 American-made motor vehicles and several repair shops. Officers' billets were on the south s of ul. Kosciuszki, opposite the barracks installation mentioned in parage Grudziadz. 4. Prior to June 1951, about 850 Polish tank troops were quartered in the barracks installations on the northern perimeter of Grudziadz (9 51/D 53 on the east bank of the Vistula River. Pateriel of the unit included Sow type tanks which were referred to as Staliniec-I and II tanks, and AT gu The reconstruction of the partly damaged barracks installations had star | |
| 25X1 Larienwerder. 1. Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Marleawerder (54/D 65) railroad station was occupied by about 1,000 Polish motorized infantry troops. The installation is bordered by ul. Dworcowa, ill. Cen. Bena, ul. Grodziadzka, and ul. Kosciuszki. 2. Another military installation, adjoining the barracks installation menti above to the west and bordered by ul. Grudziadzka, ul. Koscarowa and ul. Stowianska, quartered about 600 more motorized infantry troops and a uni headquarters. It also contained garages for about 70 American-made motor vehicles and several repair shops. Officers' billets were on the south s of ul. Kosciuszki, opposite the barracks installation mentioned in parage Grudziadz. 4. Prior to June 1951, about 850 Polish tank troops were quartered in the barracks installations on the northern perimeter of Grudziadz (9 51/D 53 on the east bank of the Vistula River. Pateriel of the unit included Sov type tanks which were referred to as Staliniec-I and II tanks, and AT gur The reconstruction of the partly damaged barracks installations had star | Car ca |
| 25X1 Larienworder. 1. Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Marienworder (.51/D 65) railroad station was occupied by about 1,000 Polish motorized infantry troops. The installation is bordered by ul. Dworcowa, ill. Cen. Bena, ul. Grodziadzka, and ul. Kosciuszki. 2. Another military installation, adjoining the barracks installation mentil above to the west and bordered by ul. Grudziadzka, ul. Kosciarowa and ul. Stowianska, quartered about 600 more motorized infantry troops and a unil headquarters. It also contained garages for about 70 American-made motor vehicles and several repair shops. Officers' billets were on the south s of ul. Kosciuszki, opposite the barracks installation mentioned in parage Grudziadz. 4. Prior to June 1951, about 850 Polish tank troops were quartered in the barracks installations on the northern perimeter of Grudziadz (Q 51/D 53 on the east bank of the Vistula River. Fateriel of the unit included Sev type tan's which were referred to as Staliniec-I and II tanks, and AT or The reconstruction of the partly damaged barracks installations had star | Constant Constant |
| Parienwerder. 1. Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Marienwerder (54/D 65) railroad station was occupied by about 1,000 Polish motorized infantry troops. The installation is bordered by ul. Dworcowa, Ul. Cen. Bera, ul. Grodziadzka, and ul. Kosciuszki. 2. Another military installation, adjoining the barracks installation menti above to the west and bordered by ul. Grudziadzka, ul. Koszarowa and ul. Stowianska, quartered about 600 more motorized infantry troops and a uni headquarters. It also contained garages for about 70 American-made motor vehicles and several repair shops. Officers' billets were on the south s of ul. Kosciuszki, opposite the barracks installation mentioned in paragental forms of ul. Kosciuszki, opposite the barracks installation for the barracks installations in the northern perimeter of Grudziadz (Q 51/D 53 on the east bank of the Vistula River. Fateriel of the unit included Sov type tan's which were referred to as Staliniec-I and II tanks, and AI gu The reconstruction of the partly damaged barracks installations had star | |
| Parienwerder. 1. Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Marienwerder (54/D 65) railroad station was occupied by about 1,000 Polish motorized infantry troops. The installation is bordered by ul. Dworcowa, Ul. Cen. Bera, ul. Grodziadzka, and ul. Kosciuszki. 2. Another military installation, adjoining the barracks installation menti above to the west and bordered by ul. Grudziadzka, ul. Koszarowa and ul. Stowianska, quartered about 600 more motorized infantry troops and a uni headquarters. It also contained garages for about 70 American-made motor vehicles and several repair shops. Officers' billets were on the south s of ul. Kosciuszki, opposite the barracks installation mentioned in paragental forms of ul. Kosciuszki, opposite the barracks installation for the barracks installations in the northern perimeter of Grudziadz (Q 51/D 53 on the east bank of the Vistula River. Fateriel of the unit included Sov type tan's which were referred to as Staliniec-I and II tanks, and AI gu The reconstruction of the partly damaged barracks installations had star | hware? |
| Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Marienwerder (5h/D 65) railroad station was occupied by about 1,000 Polish motorized infantry troops. The installation is bordered by ul. Dworcowa, III. Cen. Bera, ul. Grodziadzka, and ul. Kosciuszki. 2. Another military installation, adjoining the barracks installation menti above to the west and bordered by ul. Grudziadzka, ul. Koszarowa and ul. Stowianska, quartered about 600 more motorized infantry troops and a uni headquarters. It also contained garages for about 70 American-made motor vehicles and several repair shops. Officers' billets were on the south s of ul. Kosciuszki, opposite the barracks installation mentioned in parage Grudziadz. 4. Prior to June 1951, about 850 Polish tank troops were quartered in the barracks installations on the northern perimeter of Grudziadz (Q 5h/D 53 on the east bank of the Vistula River. Fateriel of the unit included Sov type tan's which were referred to as Staliniec-I and II tanks, and AT gu The reconstruction of the partly damaged barracks installations had star | |
| 1. Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Marienwerder (.54/D 65) railroad station was occupied by about 1,000 Polish motorized infantry troops. The installation is bordered by ul. Dworcowa, III. Cen. Bema, ul. Grodziadzka, and ul. Kosciuszki. 2. Another military installation, adjoining the barracks installation menti above to the west and bordered by ul. Grudziadzka, ul. Koscarowa and ul. Stowianska, quartered about 600 more motorized infantry troops and a uni headquarters. It also contained garages for about 70 American-made motor vehicles and several repair shops. Officers' billets were on the south s of ul. Kosciuszki, opposite the barracks installation mentioned in parage Grudziadz. 4. Prior to June 1951, about 850 Polish tank troops were quartered in the barracks installations on the northern perimeter of Grudziadz (Q 54/D 53 on the east bank of the Vistula River. Fateriel of the unit included Sov type tan's which were referred to as Staliniec-I and II tanks, and AT gu The reconstruction of the partly damaged barracks installations had star | Mark: |
| 1. Prior to June 1951, the barracks installation west of the Marienwerder (.54/D 65) railroad station was occupied by about 1,000 Polish motorized infantry troops. The installation is bordered by ul. Dworcowa, III. Cen. Bema, ul. Grodziadzka, and ul. Kosciuszki. 2. Another military installation, adjoining the barracks installation menti above to the west and bordered by ul. Grudziadzka, ul. Koscarowa and ul. Stowianska, quartered about 600 more motorized infantry troops and a uni headquarters. It also contained garages for about 70 American-made motor vehicles and several repair shops. Officers' billets were on the south s of ul. Kosciuszki, opposite the barracks installation mentioned in parage Grudziadz. 4. Prior to June 1951, about 850 Polish tank troops were quartered in the barracks installations on the northern perimeter of Grudziadz (Q 54/D 53 on the east bank of the Vistula River. Fateriel of the unit included Sov type tan's which were referred to as Staliniec-I and II tanks, and AT gu The reconstruction of the partly damaged barracks installations had star | |
| in 1949,  | t ide raph l. *), iet- ns. ted |
| 5. Another barracks installation capable of quartering about 300 troops was situated near the Polish-occupied military airfield southeast of the cit The UB office was housed in a building on ul. Sadowa. The district offic the MO (Militia) was located on ul. Duga. | Уо |
| Bydcoszcz. | |
| 6. Prior to June 1951, a KBW (Internal Security) school was located on Al. co-Yaja, Bydgoszcz (P 54/J 09). It was commanded by one Major Krzesinski (fnu). | |
| X1 * Comment. Polish infantry troops were previously reported to be statio X1 | |
| CLASSIFICATION (1994) | |
| 25X1 COM | 25> |
| Document No. 6 No Change in Class. Declarsified Class. Changed To: TS S © | 25> |

25X1  Comment. A motorized unit was remorted to be located in the barracks installation in June 1950. The tanks referred to in the present report may have been JS-1s and JS-2s, as they have been repeatedly observed with Polish units.

CONFERENCE

25X1